Wherever there are those who, because of age, infirmity or other reasons, cannot walk to the church, automobiles will go for them and return them again to their homes after the service.

Young fathers and mothers are especially desired at the rally, and that none may be deprived of the uninterrupted enjoyment of the whole program, provision is being made to care for the small children in the play room of the church.

The new pastor, the Rev W. E. Bennett, who has just come to Ogden from one of the strong churches of the subject, fire prevention must be taught every day of the year if lasting results are to be achieved.
